A DJ with long dark hair, wearing a black crop top and headphones, stands behind a DJ booth. The background features a large, glowing 'HEKA' logo in a stylized font, with a skull graphic integrated into the letter 'E'. The stage is decorated with green plants and blue lighting. The DJ's arms are outstretched.

HEKA is a mystical sound entity born in Mexico and based between Vancouver, Las Vegas, and Mexico City. Known for merging Mexican and Middle Eastern rhythms with celestial tones and technological frequencies, HEKA curates immersive soundscapes that awaken memory, move the body, and open portals. With performances across Tokyo, Las Vegas, Montreal, Cancún, and Vancouver, HEKA enchants global audiences through encoded rhythms and ceremonial movement.

Its sonic transmissions include “Concepción,” “Gestación,” “Carnelian,” and “Conciencia,” with the forthcoming “CODEX” anchoring a new phase of vibrational remembrance. HEKA has recently curated two immersive gatherings in Mexico City and performed at Kinhsasa, continuing its mission of weaving ancient codes with future sound.
